The Great Train Robbery

Sunday,
September 27,
2009

Climb aboard the AC & J Scenic Line, as we step back in time, to ride the rails on a vintage train. You better hold on to your gold, as bandits will be boarding the train to rob it. No need to fear, as the local Sheriff isn't far behind. Travel through back farm country, crossing over two bridges, through woods and ending at Carson Yard. Many areas seen are undisturbed in over a century of railroading. Two meals are also included. Come, and enjoy all the excitement as we relive the days of a past era. All aboard!

Modern Day Romance

Sunday,
Nov. 8, 2009

Join us for our first trip ever to the Actor’s Summit Theatre in Cleveland, OH. This is a romantic comedy for the digital age. In our wireless world of twitter, email, text messaging and camera phones, do a bride and groom really need to be in the same country to get married? Karen and Max want to get married -- if their jobs will ever let them be in the same city at the same time. Overlapping calls, three-party conferencing, simultaneous instant messages and emails create moments of sublime confusion. Six characters cross talking never sounded so funny and made so much sense. A genuine farce for the 21st century. Two meals complete your day of your theatre experience.

Christmas Carol

Sunday,
Nov. 29, 2009

Open your heart to a classic tale of one man’s ultimate redemption as we travel to Cleveland, OH to watch the musical “A Christmas Carol.” Charles Dickens’ classic story of the Christmas spirit that still lives within embittered Ebenezer Scrooge is magically transformed into a musical event featuring a visitation of spirits from past, present, and future. This tale still stirs in everyone the same feelings of repentance, love, and forgiveness that transformed Scrooge himself. Don’t be a “Bah! Humbug!”
